

112. THEY CAN'T BURN THE FLAG ON ZION'S MOUNTAIN

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

Country

1. Morn - ing breaks to burn a-way the black-ness, And mu - sic breaks to burn a-way the fear; While
2. Noth - ing shines as bright as Zi-on's moun-tain, And noth- ing stands as high as Zi-on's hill; And
3. There's no joy that's great-er than is found there, And there's no love that's great-er an - y where; No an - gels smile to see the scene be - fore them, And sing - ing breaks the si - lence in the air.

all that en - ter leave their tears be - hind them, Where noth - ing hurts and noth - ing ev - er will.
trem-bling hands nor fee - ble knees are found there, No bless-ings great - er than the blessings there.

Chorus

And they can't burn the flag on Zi - on's moun-tain, — And they can't take that ci - ty on the hill; And they can't dim the light that shines a - round her, For all that God has prom-ised He'll ful - fill.
