

124. I AM YOUR BROTHER

(Genesis 45:4 "I am JOSEPH your brother...")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. I am your brother, the years have been long, Where
2. I am your brother, lost so long a - go, There's
3. I am your brother, so come gath - er 'round, Where 4. I am your brother, I'm hid - ing my tears, Re - dim grew the vi - sion and dim grew the song. But no need to bow down nor sor - row to show. This corn grows the tall - est and hon - ey is found. Where joic - ing to see you from so man - y years. The out of the dark - ness and burst - ing with light, I'm see - ing my broth - ers, don't day had been prom - ised our fa - ther be - fore, I've found you my broth - ers, don't storms nev - er lin - ger and dreams nev - er die, And I am your broth - er, come land lies be - fore you, a beau - ti - ful sight, My broth - ers are home now, don't cry, it's all right. I'm see - ing my broth - ers, don't cry, it's all right. cry, an - y more. I've found you my broth - ers, don't cry, an - y more. broth - ers, don't cry. And I am your broth - er, come broth - ers, don't cry. cry, it's all right. My broth - ers are home now, don't cry, it's all right.