

126. FREEDOM'S SONG

(Isaiah 65:22)

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. We've sung a - bout the cloud - y skies and of the storm - y seas, We've sung a - bout our
2. We've watched the spring - times come and go and count - ed up the years, We've seen our loved ones
3. We're sing - ing free - dom's song to - day, Let all the land re - joice, The set and fa - vored moun - tain home and of the morn - ing breeze; We've wait - ed at the bor - der line for pass a - way, We've sung thru man - y tears; But nev - er once and not a day our time has come, We've heard our Fa - ther's voice; He said that men shall long en - joy their some say far too long, But praise the Lord we've come this far, We're sing - ing free - dom's hope grew dim nor died, For free - dom's just a breath a - way, We'll sing it far and la - bor and be free, So raise your voice and sing a - long this free - dom's song with song. But praise the Lord we've come this far we're sing - ing free - dom's song. wide. For free - dom's just a breath a - way, We'll sing it far and wide.

me. So raise your voice and sing a - long this free - dom's song with me.