1.'Twas a beau - ti - ful gar - den, God tend - ed it well,
2.No - ah called out to sin - ners, So man - y long years;

All His beau - ti - ful flow - ers, They were so quick to tell;
"The— storm it is com - ing," But they laughed at his tears;

Of the bright sun - ny morn - ings and the cool eve - ning While the ark was pre - par - ing God— held back the breeze, While the small— birds rest - ed, In the strong— tall trees.

tide, But He closed the door quick - ly, When they all were in - side.

132. AND THEN THE RAINS CAME

Chorus:

And then the rains came, And the trees fell down,

And the wind blew hard - er with an aw - ful sound; But then the sun shone and the rain - bow found its place, And the lit - tle birds sang out,

"We were saved by grace." "Saved by grace"
