

135. THE WATCHMEN

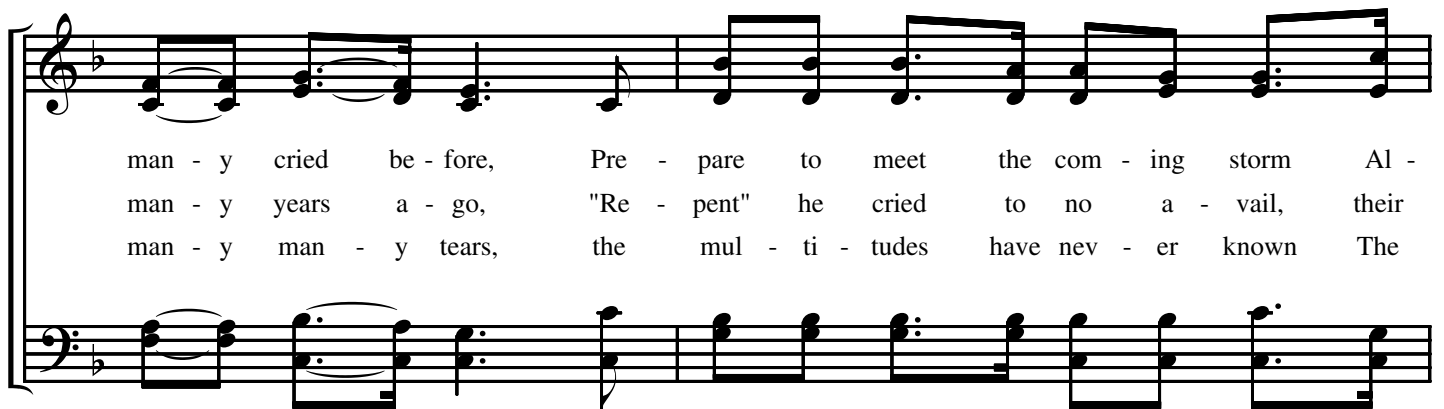

(Isaiah 62:6 "I have set watchmen upon thy walls...")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

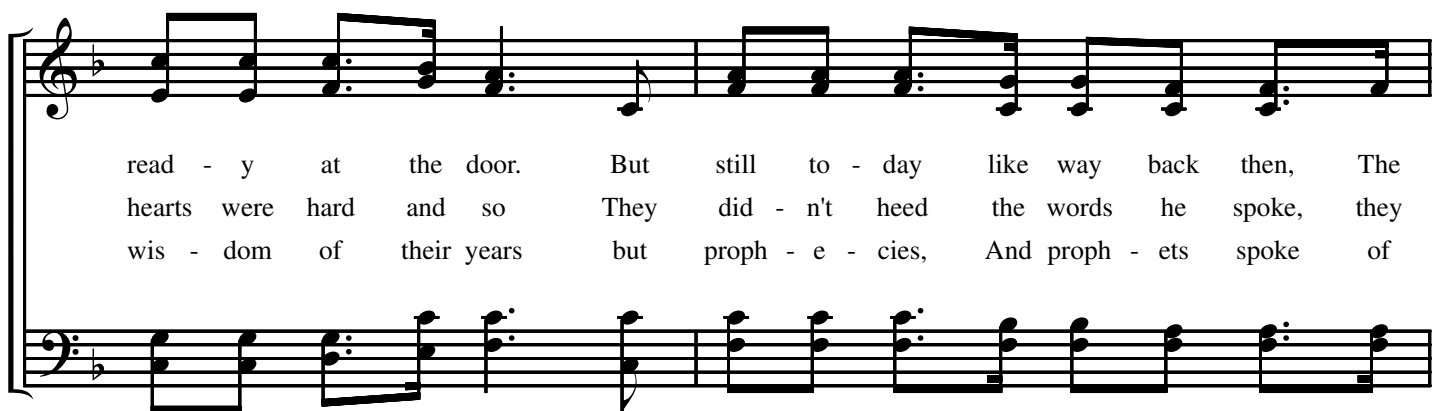

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. The watch - men on the wall cry out, Like
2. When Sam - uel on the wall cried out So 3. The watch - men on the wall have cried so man - y cried be - fore, Pre - pare to meet the com - ing storm Al - man - y years a - go, "Re - pent" he cried to no a - vail, their man - y man - y tears, the mul - ti - tudes have nev - er known The read - y at the door. But still to - day like way back then, The hearts were hard and so They did - n't heed the words he spoke, they wis - dom of their years but proph - e - cies, And proph - ets spoke of

135. THE WATCHMEN

care - less walk on by, And still to - day up - on the wall God's could - n't see their day, But man - y since that time have heard the such a sud - den storm, So chil - dren heed the wis - dom of The faith - ful watch - men cry. watch - men cry and say. "Pre - pare chil - dren, pre - pare," they cry, "In watch - men when they warn.

Chorus:

right - eous - ness be found, When shel - tered in God's warm em - brace, No storm can take you down."