

147. THIS HOPE WILL NEVER DIE

(Psalm 71:14 "But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. How long can the heath - en rage And chil - dren fail to thrive? How long can God's
 2. How long can a na - tion stand, Di - vid - ed it will fall. How long can our
 3. How long will God's hedge re - main a - round this pro - mised land? How long can we 4. How strong Zi - on's walls must be to stand one thou - sand years! How long can we faith - ful keep to - mor - row's hope a - live? As long as God is on His throne And hope sur - vive and rise a - bove it all? As long as days and time re - main and live in hope that Zi - on's walls will stand? As long as proph - e - cies are true, God's hope to see a time of no sad tears? As long as there are songs and dreams and stars are in the sky, Un - til we build those sa - cred walls this hope will nev - er God leads from on high, Un - til we build those sa - cred walls this hope will nev - er word can nev - er lie. Un - til we build those sa - cred walls this hope will nev - er bless - ings from on high, Un - til we build those sa - cred walls this hope will nev - er

die, This hope will nev - er die. _____
 die, This hope will nev - er die. _____
 die, This hope will nev - er die. _____
 die, This hope will nev - er die. _____

*Sing small notes on last verse