

148. "PRODIGAL RUNNING"

(Luke 15:11-32)

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

Sweetly

1. A sign on the high-way, "Has an - y one seen A prod - i - gal run - ning this way?" —
2. The sign on the high-way said, "Christ on the cross had died for this run - a - way child," — His
3. The sign on the high-way said, "Man - y be - fore had trav - eled this long road of sin," — A
4. The sign on the high-way said, "Run - a - way child," not stop - ping to think of the cost. —

Run - ning and run - ning so fast thru the night, A run - a - way, run - ning a - way. — fa - ther had post - ed on eve - ry known road, Re - ward - ing whom - ev - er had found. — prod - i - gal run - ning, if an - y one's seen, Try bring - ing this prod - i - gal in. —
Run - ning a - way from the safe - ty of home, A prod - i - gal run - ning and lost. —

Chorus:

"Prod - i - gal run - ning," Oh, why did you run? Your fa - ther has laid much in store. — You'll nev - er be hun - gry and nev - er be cold, and nev - er be lost an - y more. —