Joyfully

1.The goal had been set and the run - ners were read - y, To 2.While some ran with hope and with joy eve - ry day, And 3.Now some thought the dang - ers a - head were too great, But 4.Now some loved the Sav - ior so dear - ly you see, It fin - ish the race the pace must be stead - y. Now, some were so eag - er and some ran with sor - row each step of the way. Now, some took their ease while some looked a - head to the prize at the gate. Yes, some car - ried sor - rows and made the race eas - y so it seemed to me. With bless - ings for pro - gress they these hearts were light, Some burd - ened with weights had lim - it - ed sight. oth - ers ran by, And some looked be - low while oth - ers on high. some car - ried joys, Some car - ried the world and some car - ried toys.

car - ried a song, For these ran with Je - sus all the day long.
