

156. ONLY DREAMERS SEE

(Proverbs 29:18 "Where there is no vision, the people perish.")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. There's a cit - y on the moun - tain top That on - ly dream - ers see, But
2. There's a cit - y on the moun - tain top where on - ly dream - ers go, The
3. So _____ man - y seek a cit - y just like A - bra - ham of old, But those that have no vi - sion here, They say it can not be, But proph - ets long por - trayed that hill, And said that it was so, They in our day to earth - ly eyes, A cit - y will un - fold, And can't you smell the ros - es in the ear - ly morn - ing air? So, said that Christ was com - ing there and Him I want to see. So, dream - ers all a - round the world are com - ing here to see. So, close your eyes and dream the dream that on - ly dream - ers share.

all you dream - ers, close your eyes and dream this dream with me.
close your eyes un - til the dawn and dream a - long with me.

156. ONLY DREAMERS SEE

Chorus

And we'll climb high - er ev - er high - er in our jour - ney to the top, Oh, can't you hear the mu - sic play, It nev - er seems to stop, And does that light we're see - ing mean the dawn has fin - 'ly broke, Could that be the moun - tain there of which the proph - ets spoke? _____

*

* Sopranos sing small notes on last chorus