

157. THE TREASURE

(Matthew 6:21 "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. Je - sus is the treas - ure That no jewel on earth can meas - ure, A 2. Wise men tried to teach it, And the dream - ers tried to reach it, And
3. Christ, ar - rayed in glo - ry, It's an old but brand new sto - ry, He treas - ure that the poor - est man can hold. _____ This poor men said this treas - ure we must find. _____ The said, "Un - to His king - dom he would come." _____ There's treas - ure if you seek it, You can sure - ly hold and keep it, more dawn, Christ is a - dorn - ing, like a thou - sand suns at morn - ing, And star - light on the foun - tain, He is light - ing up His moun - tain, And pre - cious far than an - y earth - ly gold. Some say there were dia - monds Where the na - tions come to see what we have found. call - ing all the na - tions for to come.

Chorus

157. THE TREASURE

dew lay on the ground, Some say there were ru - bies in the ros - es that were found, And sap - phires on the branch - es where the weep - ing wil - lows grow, But those that find the treas - ure are the on - ly ones that know. But those that find the treas - ure are the on - ly ones that know.

* Sing small notes on last chorus