

160. "HE'S COMING"

(Isaiah 61:1-3)

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

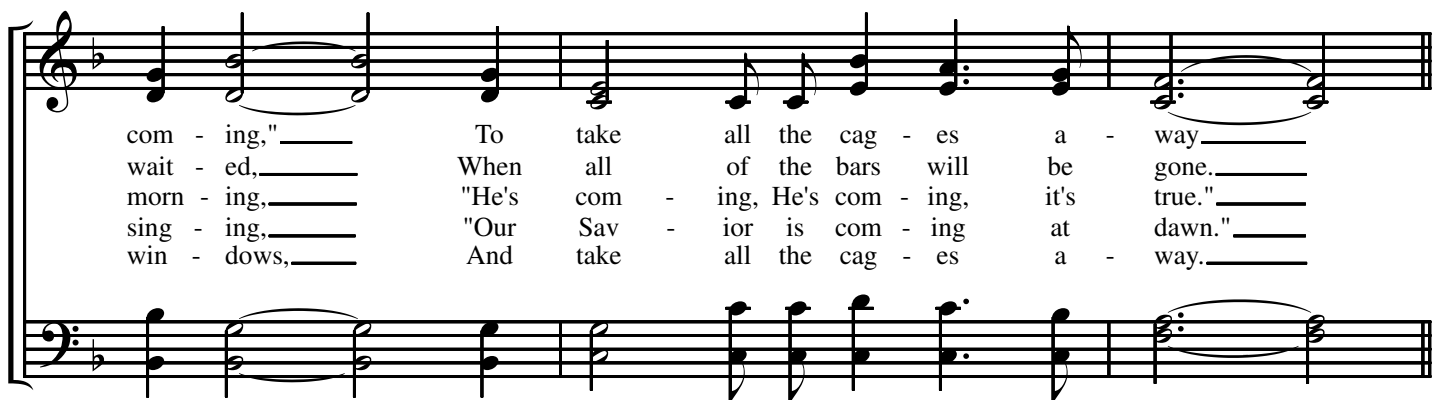

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. The birds in the trees sing, "Good morn - ing," _____ The
2. The pris - 'ners, thru bars, see the morn - ing, _____ They're
3. The small bird is on - ly a spar - row, _____ It's 4. The birds in the trees sing of free - dom, _____ The 5. Our Lord and our Sav - ior is com - ing, _____ To bird in the cage sings, "Good day," _____ The signs in the clouds say, "He's wait - ing; they know Christ will come, _____ For free - dom, so long they have col - ors of no bril - liant hue, _____ No love - li - er song in the bird in the cage sings a - long, _____ And down in the pris - on they're o - pen the pris - ons one day, _____ To break all the bars on the

com - ing," _____ To take all the cag - es a - way _____ wait - ed, _____ When all of the bars will be gone. _____
morn - ing, _____ "He's com - ing, He's com - ing, it's true." _____
sing - ing, _____ "Our Sav - ior is com - ing at dawn." _____
win - dows, _____ And take all the cag - es a - way. _____

160. "HE'S COMING"

Chorus

He'll take all the cages away, He'll take all the cages away, The signs in the sky say He's coming to take all the cages away.