

184. FROM STEEPLE TO STEEPLE

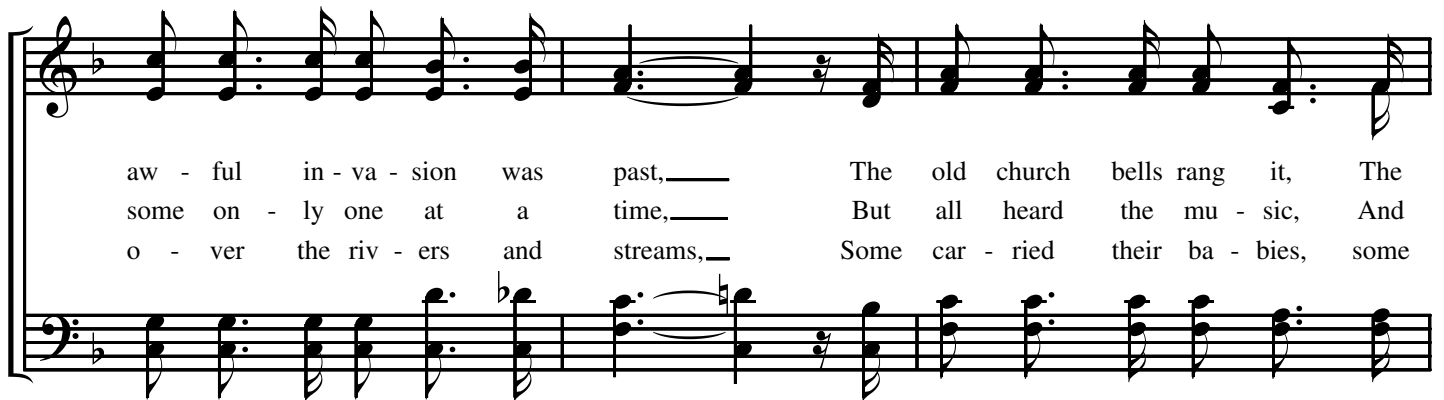

(Joel 2:20 "But I will remove far off from you the northern army...")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

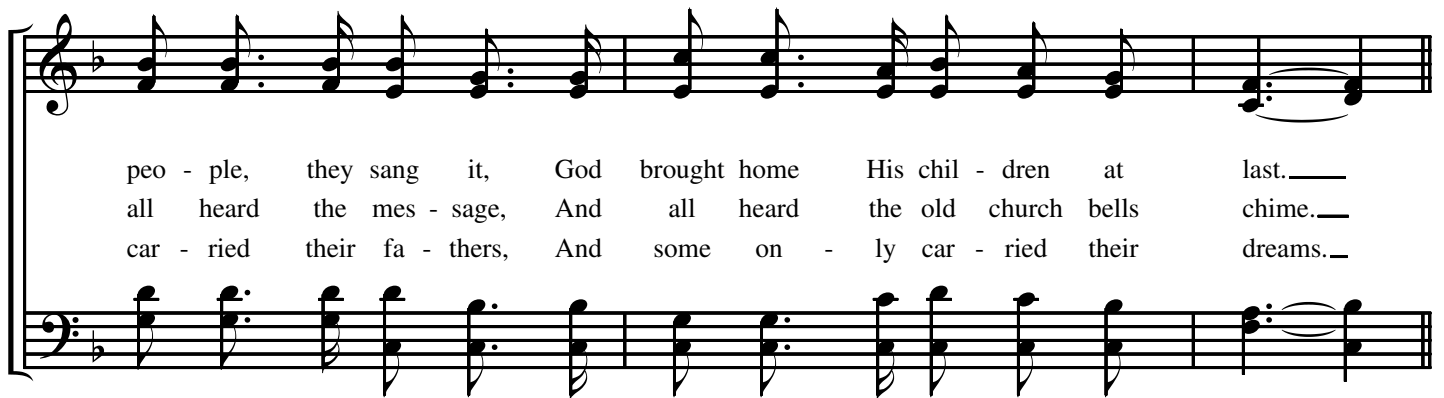

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1.The war had been o - ver, The en - e - my gone, The 2.Some came by the hun - dreds, And some by the thou - sands And 3.Some o - ver the moun - tains, And o - ver the bor - ders, And aw - ful in - va - sion was past, — The old church bells rang it, The some on - ly one at a time, — But all heard the mu - sic, And o - ver the riv - ers and streams, — Some car - ried their ba - bies, some peo - ple, they sang it, God brought home His chil - dren at last. — all heard the mes - sage, And all heard the old church bells chime. — car - ried their fa - thers, And some on - ly car - ried their dreams. —

184. FROM STEEPLE TO STEEPLE

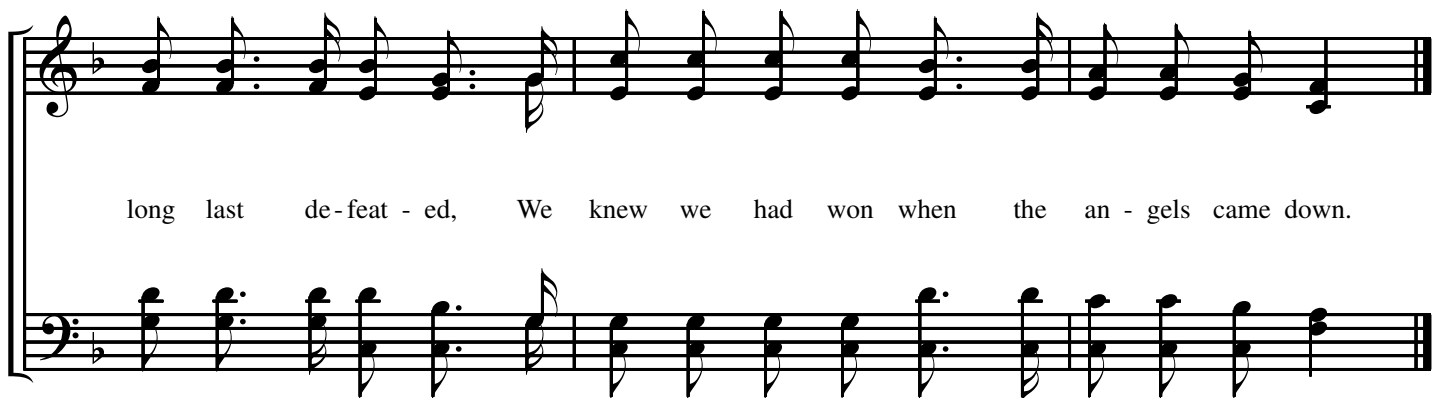

Chorus

From stee - ple to stee - ple, tell - ing God's peo - ple, "The long war had fin - 'ly been won," — The ar - my re - treat - ed, at long last de - feat - ed, We knew we had won when the an - gels came down.