

187. THE EAGLE'S FLIGHT

(Matthew 6:10 "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven...")

Daniel 2:44 "And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed...it shall stand forever.")

Arranged by Eugene F. Amormino

Words and Music by Arlene L. Buffington

1. The ea - gle on the moun - tain stood and fierce - ly looked a -
2. The ea - gle took its ear - ly flight in - to the morn - ing 3. That ea - gle flew at morn - ing and that ea - gle flew at round, but when God said, "It's time to fly," that sun, and ev' - ry - where its song was heard, It noon, Some said, "It can - not be be - cause that ea - gle left the ground. He soared o - ver the seemed new life had sprung. For ev' - ry - where the ea - gle flew too soon." But when God said, "It's val - leys where the peo - ple stopped to look, for grass turned green and ev' - ry - bod - y knew, The time to fly," it left its loft - y nest and when his song had touched the earth, 'Twas then the whole land song the ea - gle sang that day of peace on earth was brought the mes - sage down to earth, The Sev - enth Day of

187. THE EAGLE'S FLIGHT

Chorus

shook. —
 true. — And he soared high — and he soared low, — Rest. —

And he sang out, — "It's time to go." — So dry your tears, — there's been a birth, — Christ's king - dom's come at last to earth.

rit.-----